

NATIONAL BUILDING MUSEUM LECTURE SERIES

women of architecture

ANNABELLE SELLDORF
ARCHITECTURE AND CONTEXT

Wednesday, March 23, 2011
6:30 – 8:00 pm

Annabelle Selldorf

ARCHITECTURE AND CONTEXT

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 23, 2011 / 6:30 – 8:00 PM
NATIONAL BUILDING MUSEUM

ANNABELLE SELLDORF, FAIA, founding principal of Selldorf Architects, discusses her work including 200 Eleventh Avenue in New York City, a condominium featuring a car elevator that allows residents to park directly outside their apartments. This program is presented during March in recognition of Women's History Month.

BEVERLY WILLIS, FAIA, president and founder of the Beverly Willis Architecture Foundation and a Founding Trustee of the National Building Museum will provide opening remarks. 1.5 LU HSW (AIA)

Women of Architecture: Annabelle Selldorf: Architecture and Context, part of the Women of Architecture series, is a collaboration between the National Building Museum and the Beverly Willis Architecture Foundation to celebrate Women's History Month.

For more information or to register for the program, visit www.nbm.org. $12 Museum members, National Museum for Women in the Arts members, and Students; $20 Non-members. Prepaid registration required. Walk-in registration based on availability.